

WEDNESDAYS @ BETHANY

JUNE 19, 2019

BETHANY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

There will be a congregational meeting June 30th, immediately following worship. The purpose of the meeting is to vote on the dissolution of Rev. Kathryn Pyke's call as pastor of Bethany, along with the severance package. All members are encouraged to be present.

Question and Answer: Every month, on the Sunday immediately following the session meeting, an elder will moderate a question and answer session following worship. You are invited to ask any questions about session business or anything about the life of the church. Next meeting: this Sunday, June 23rd.

Deacon's Offering: The deacons will be collecting the next offering during the month of June. Envelopes will be available in the chairs, and you can put your offering in the basket any time during the month.

In the past, the deacons have made donations to several causes: to congregation members in need, Catholic Worker Hospitality House, Second harvest Food Bank, and TransHeartline; We also made a contribution to our Spring Tea, sponsoring two tickets to the tea and donating a basket for the raffle.

Thank you for your continued generous support of the work of the deacons!
