

WEDNESDAYS @ BETHANY

JULY 3, 2019

BETHANY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Rev. Kathryn's Final Worship Service: Rev. Kathryn will preach her final sermon on Sunday, July 28. There will be beautiful music by both Chancel Choir and Prayz, some of Kathryn's favorite hymns, and a worship service of celebration and joy. Please plan to join together with the Bethany family and friends as we bid a fond farewell to Kathryn and Richard.

Luncheon Reception on Sunday, July 28: There will be a special luncheon reception in honor of Rev. Kathryn Pyke and Richard after worship on Sunday, July 28th. Please plan to join as we celebrate the ministry of Kathryn. A lovely lunch will be provided by members of Community Life/Action Committee, and there will be a basket available for cards and best wishes for the Pykes as they transition to the next phase of their ministries.

Pulpit Supply: George Lynch has been actively scheduling ministers to fill the pulpit starting the first Sunday in August. He is having great success in securing wonderful speakers for the congregation, and he has lined people up through September. The Worship Committee will work with the guest ministers to assure a smooth path for them as we go through this time of transition, and we will continue to plan for special services as each new season approaches. Please let Worship Committee members know if you have any questions or concerns as we move through this season - Tamra Hollenbeck, Pam Matthews, George Lynch, Lyn Hughes, and Kathleen Mitchell.
